I don't remember when I first knew I was different from other people. When people around me wanted anything done, they talked 66 their mouths. I didn't find any of us were different. One day, I stood between two persons who were 67 (communicate) with each other. I tried to join them, but I moved my lips(嘴唇) without result. Then I also did some signs to make them understand, 68 they couldn't know what I wanted to "say". This made me so angry and sad. From then on, I always felt upset. My teacher found I was sad and knew my trouble. She 69 (give) me three pieces of advice. The first was that I should understand everyone is different and shouldn't feel upset. I have many 70 (skill) to tell others what I want. The 71 (two) was that don't compare myself with others. I can 72 (clear) tell others my opinions with my signs. The third was to do what I want to do, and then I will have a good 73 (develop) in the future. The love of my teacher made me accept my differences. I decided to cheer 74 and I could have a wonderful life. Now, I am explaining why we are different from others to my students in 75 special school. I am grateful(感激的) to my teacher. I will love my students like my teacher.

The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn 《哈克贝立·费恩历险记》 is a novel by Mark Twain. It is 66 children's story about a boy who sets out alone in order to enjoy an easy and free life.

The main character Huck, the son of a drunkard(酒鬼), lives a hard life as a child. Luckily, he is adopted(收养) by Mrs. Douglas. However, Huck is tired of the 67 (bore) life in Mrs. Douglas' house, so he runs away from home. After that, he meets a stranger named "Nigger Jim". They soon become good friends and always enjoy 68 (they) together.

Huck learns that Jim is Miss Watson's slave(奴隶). Jim runs away because he has 69 (hear) that Miss Watson wants to sell him and he feels like 70 (control) his own life. Huck and Jim decide to have an exciting adventure(冒险) together. They go through a lot of trouble, which makes their friendship much 71 (strong). At last, 72 the help of Tom Sawyer, Huck's best friend, Jim wins his freedom and has a strong feeling of 73 (satisfied).

The novel ends well, but Huck's story doesn't finish 74 (complete). Huck takes off again for other places. His story also reflects(反映) the 75 (society) situation during that period(时期).

The kite is a symbol of Chinese traditional culture. 76 (fly) a kite is a very popular activity in China. And kite-flying is now believed to be good 77 the health.

The 78 (early) Chinese kite first appeared in the Spring and Autumn Period over 2,000 years ago. Mo Zi spent three years 79 (build) a wooden kite but it was broken after flying for a day. Then craftsman(工匠) Lu Ban tried 80 (he) best to make the kite as light as possible with thin wood and bamboo. And it had the bird's name of "Yuan". After the Han dynasty(朝代), paper was used into the kite-making. "Zhi" in Chinese means paper, 81 the kite got the name "Zhi Yuan". In the late Tang dynasty, people added strings(弦) to kites. When wind came, those kites would sound like guzheng, thus getting the name of "Fengzheng".

As "the World Kite Capital", Weifang in Shandong province once made a kite over 300 82 (meter) long and in the shape of a centipede(蜈蚣) with a dragon's head. The kite 83 (win) first place in the International Kite Festival in Italy. Now Weifang International Kite Festival is held from 20th to 25th in April every year. It has many fans around the world. Kite lovers are 84 (complete) crazy about these kites with different shapes.

If you are 85 (interest) in flying a kite, choose a sunny and windy day to enjoy the open air with your family.

When I was about 12, a girl in my class liked to point out my problems. I was too thin; I wasn't a good student; I talked too much; I was too proud and so on. At last, I 73 (become) very angry and ran to my father. He listened to me 74 (silent). Then he asked, "Are these things true 75 not? Do you know what you are really like? Go and make a list(清单) of what she said and find the things that are true." I did as he told me. 76 my great surprise, I discovered(发现) that about half of the things were true. Some of them I couldn't change (like being very thin). But there were things I could and wanted to change. For the first time, I got a clear picture of myself.

I brought 77 list back to Dad. He didn't take it. "That's just for you," he said, "You know the 78 (true) about yourself better than anyone else. When people say something that is true about you, you should find it helpful. It's good for your 79 (develop)."

Our world is filled 80 people who think they know your matter. Don't be angry and feel hurt. Listen to them, but hear the true things and do what is right.

Sometimes we find it hard to know the cultures(文化) in other countries, 63 they are different from 64 (our). Here 65 (be) some tips about learning about different cultures.

Have 66 open mind. Open the door of your mind to other people. Try not to think it is hard when you haven't taken a close look at it. You may not agree with it, but you should try to respect(尊重) it.

Take a look at history. From that you can learn a lot about 67 (another) countries. When you start doing this, you will understand how 68 (thing) work in the world today.

Talk to people. If you know people from different cultures, talk to them. Therefore, you can get to know the way they think about things.

Try their way of 69 (do) things. With their traditional food, you will get 70 (close) to their culture.

A small restaurant in Beijing has warmed 63 (people) hearts for a special set meal(套餐) offered for free to those in need.

The "Set Meal A" offered by the food shop includes a bowl of beef noodles, which costs 22 yuan. The meal is given for free to people in need, like fresh graduates(应届毕业生) with little money, homeless people or 64 (cleaner). Set Meal A is like a magic phrase. It has secretly helped the people in need without 65 (hurt) their dignity(尊严).

Yu Chenghao, owner of the restaurant, said he came up with the idea of giving free food because 66 his own experience. In 2012, Yu was still a college student in Kunming. One day, he lost his wallet and felt helpless with no money at hand. Then 67 owner of a nearby rice noodle shop saw Yu and gave him a bowl of rice noodles for free. 68 the meal, the owner gave Yu five yuan to help him go back to school.

Yu said he was deeply moved by the shop owner's kindness. He started running the restaurant two months ago, and he decided 69 (help) people in trouble and gave them free meals in the same way. After the poster was hung outside the restaurant, many people came to order Set Meal A, and still 70 (pay) for the food to show their support(支持) for Yu's charity(慈善) work.

Many children love animals. Among these children, Willow Phelps does 76 (well). As 77 matter of fact, this little American girl not only loves animals, but also has done really a lot for them. And because she did these kind things, she won the 2016 ASPCA(美国防止虐待动物协会) Kid of the Year.

Willow's love for animals 78 (start) early. When she was about 3 years old, her family 79 (take) in an 18-year-old cat. Under the care of Willow, the cat lived for another 3 years. After 80 (those), many old pets arrived at Willow's home. So Willow began to make plans to help more animals. 81 her mom's help, Willow began running, swimming and even sewing(缝制) toys 82 (raise) money for animals in need of help. In her young life, she has finished three projects. 83 (final), she raised $11,000. She also succeeded in stopping the use of live goldfish as prizes at her school carnival(嘉年华). And ASPCA noticed what she did for goldfish and gave her the prize.

"I will continue to speak up for animals no matter how many 84 (difficult) I will meet," said Willow. Willow dreams of 85 (become) an animal doctor in the future. Hope her dream will come true.

Adolescence(青春期) is a time when young people grow from children to adults. It is difficult for teenagers because both their minds and bodies make great changes. 63 changes may bring teenagers many problems if they don't know how to deal with 64 (it). Therefore, it's necessary to learn something about the changes.

When is the adolescence? A young person may begin adolescence at the age of 8, while another may not start 65 they're 14 or 15. Usually girls start two years 66 (early) than boys do. For both girls and boys, it is usually over by the age of 18.

Teenage boys at this time often begin to take unnecessary risks. They focus on having fun and being accepted by others. They are also easily angry and fight more. Therefore, they need to think before they act and learn to take responsibilities(责任). A girl's personality often does not develop in the same way 67 a boy's. Teenage girls sometimes lose confidence in themselves. They are no longer sure about their own feelings. Yet they are usually afraid to 68 (communication) with their parents or teachers about their problems. For this reason, teenage girls should be encouraged to talk about things with people they trust.

Parents, schools and communities can do a lot to 69 (care) for and help young people. At the same time, teachers can also educate teenagers about what is 70 (happen) to them and help them to know themselves better.

Wang Ping is a cleaner. He has worked in a park for 5 years. He is also a good father. Nothing can make him happier than playing with his little daughter in his free time.

Last Tuesday afternoon, while he was cleaning the park, suddenly, he heard a woman 63 (cry) for help. He ran up quickly to see what happened. The woman's 15-month-old baby girl choked(窒息) on a small piece of pear and her face turned purple. The baby was too young to save 64 (her), and the mother was so nervous that she didn't know how to save her daughter 65 (proper). Luckily, Wang Ping knew what to do. He took the baby in his arms without thinking 66 (two). 67 the mother's help, Wang Ping held the baby upside down(上下颠倒) and gave her a few pats(轻拍) on the back. After 68 short while, he succeeded in getting the piece of pear out of her mouth and the baby 69 (begin) to cry. Her mother was so thankful because her daughter was saved.

Wang Ping tried his best and saved the baby's life. In my opinion, helping others is just helping himself. He hoped more people could volunteer 70 (help) the people in need if possible.

Which do you prefer to use when you are studying, iPads or books? Here is 76 survey about it.

Some students think that iPads are a lot 77 (good) because iPads can give them more choices. They can search for information in an iPad easily instead of 78 (look) everything up in different books. At the same time, students can send pictures 79 (direct) to a printer to photocopy them. With an iPad, they can keep all 80 (they) work in it. And homework will not be forgotten easily 81 teachers can send all the homework to their iPads. But 82 (other) think that books are more helpful for learning. 83 (one), reading books won't hurt their eyes. Second, what they read in books 84 (leave) a deeper impression on them. What's more, some students usually use iPads to play games at school, which is bad 85 their study. So they prefer to use books.

I am a reporter from Teens Magazine. 63 (recent), we have received many teenagers' letters about their problems with their parents. Jack is one of them from a 64 (west) family. Last week, while he 65 (do) homework, his parents came into his room suddenly without knocking at the door and asked him to have dinner. He got angry and had an 66 (argue) with his parents. He said he would not talk to them 67 they started to talk to him. But is that OK?

You often say that your parents do not understand you. When something goes wrong, most parents think it's all your mistakes instead of 68 (communication) with you. Many parents don't allow you to make decisions or do things by yourselves. Relations between children and parents are becoming worse and worse. Maybe you need to find more time to talk with your parents. Also, you need to try hard to find out 69 nicer way to get what you want. 70 my opinion, if you want to stay out late, you should speak out what you want to do and why it is important for you to do so. Then they might just agree with your ideas. So if all of us can be peaceful, we can get on well with our parents.

When my alarm clock went off at 6 a.m., I almost put off getting up. But today was special— 76 (we) class would raise money for the children in hospital in order to cheer 77 (they) up.

As I was making my way to school, I saw an old man lying on the ground near the 78 (fall) trees from last night's storm. Without thinking 79 (two), I ran to help. One of my favorite things about playing music is recording it so that I can share it 81 others. I've recorded 82 (hundred) of songs over the years, both with my bandmates(乐队队员) and on my own. But one thing I've 83 (find) is that the recording never goes quite the way you expect.

Last week, I recorded five songs with my band Unit. We're kind of a weird(古怪的) noisy rock band. We 84 (go) into the studio(录音棚) without much of a plan. We decided we would just 85 (set) up a few microphones, play our songs and see how things turned out.

The recording was very DIY. We recorded everything in a single room. This means that our microphones picked up all of the instruments(乐器) at once, 86 the resulting sound was a bit messy(混乱的). We even had to use a coat rack(衣帽架) to hold our microphones. But 87 (actual), recording this way can be pretty fun. I've done many recordings before, but sometimes it's fun to record in a more 88 (usual) way.

After we finished, we went home and listened to what we'd recorded. The songs sounded a lot 89 (good) than we expected! We still have some more work to do 90 we can release(发布) our songs. But I think people will enjoy how we recorded them.

Now more and more Chinese teenagers find life hard without their parents. Their parents almost do everything at home. As a result, it is difficult for the teenagers to look after 76 (they) well.

Joy was a 14-year-old girl. One day, her parents 77 (go) on a trip, so she was alone at home. She was 78 (excite) because she thought she could do whatever she liked. However, things didn't go well. 79 it was six o'clock in the afternoon, she felt hungry. "Oh, it's time to have dinner. Where can I get my dinner?" She said to herself. She opened the fridge and found some meat and vegetables in it. However, she didn't 80 (complete) know how to cook them. At that moment, she missed her parents very much. It was 81 first time she realized that she should learn to cook. In the end, she could only go to the supermarket to buy some food 82 (eat).

Many teenagers have the same problem. In my opinion, teenagers should learn some life 83 (skill), like cooking, sweeping the floor and taking out the rubbish.

Since they live in a house with their parents, they should share some housework. They shouldn't depend 84 their parents too much, because it's not good for their 85 (develop). Do you think so?

The Wildlife Park in Sydney has different kinds of animals. Some are only from Australia. There are 76 (many) than 500 animals there, including koalas and crocodiles(鳄鱼). They 77 (keep) in their natural environment. To tell the 78 (true), I like the Wildlife Park better than a zoo. Because in zoos, most of the animals are in cages(笼子).

We first spent some time 79 the koalas. We could touch and feed 80 (they). It was very exciting to be so close to them. They looked very lovely. Though we couldn't carry koalas, I could take a photo with one. It is 81 wonderful gift of my holiday in Sydney.

Lots of freshwater and saltwater crocodiles are 82 (live) in the Wildlife Park. Some of them are very big and scary with huge 83 (tooth)! So I did not want to get too close to them.

There was also a bird show. The keepers showed us many kinds of birds. I 84 (see) an old parrot. It was 85 clever that it could "talk".
